Attractions Guide

The Fairfield-Suisun Chamber of Commerce and Garson Design Services are pleased to announce the release of their 1999 Attractions Guide. The 52-page full color guide lists local tour locations, special events, shopping, dining, and other points of interest.

Edited and designed by Garson Design Services, a Fairfield graphic design studio, owner Steve Garson said, "A lot of attention was given to make the guide functional, attractive and informative to visitors. We wanted a strong, positive reaction from anyone picking up the guide and we think we have achieved that. It's something we can all be proud of."

The Chamber's Tourism

Committee chairman, Russ Albers, who is vice chairman of the Jelly Belly Candy Company in Fairfield, oversaw the publication. He noted that the guide has more color pages than the previous edition. The 25,000 copies printed will be distributed to high traffic locations here and in the neighboring Bay Area communities.

Albers noted that the Fairfield-Suisun area is, today, very much a tour destination. The idea of the guide, he said, is not only to entice people to visit the area but, once here, "draw visitors from one attraction to others".

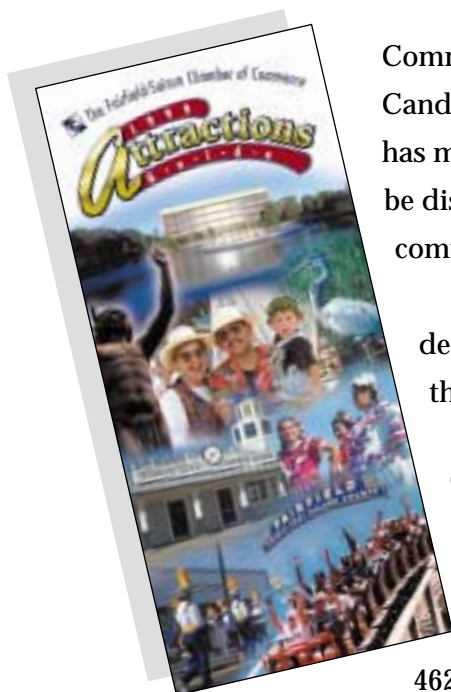

There are also on-line companion pages that feature specific Solano Tourism Event Dates, the Downtown Fairfield Walking Tour, Solano Special Features, and much more! See it on the web at:
