

Fairfield Veterans Day Commemoration

The Fairfield Veterans Day Commemoration has become a regional favorite. It's our way of saying "Thank you" to our nation's veterans, and to celebrate their contributions to our community.

In addition to the parade, there is a concert and ceremony commemoration held at 11:00 a.m.

Fairfield Veterans Day Commemoration Sponsorship Opportunities

Concert 10:00 a.m.

A lively concert focusing on local talent starts the day at 10:00 a.m.

Coordinated by local veteran's groups, the concert is held at the Fairfield Center for Creative Arts, 1035 Texas Street in Fairfield.

Ceremony of Remembrance - 11:00 a.m.

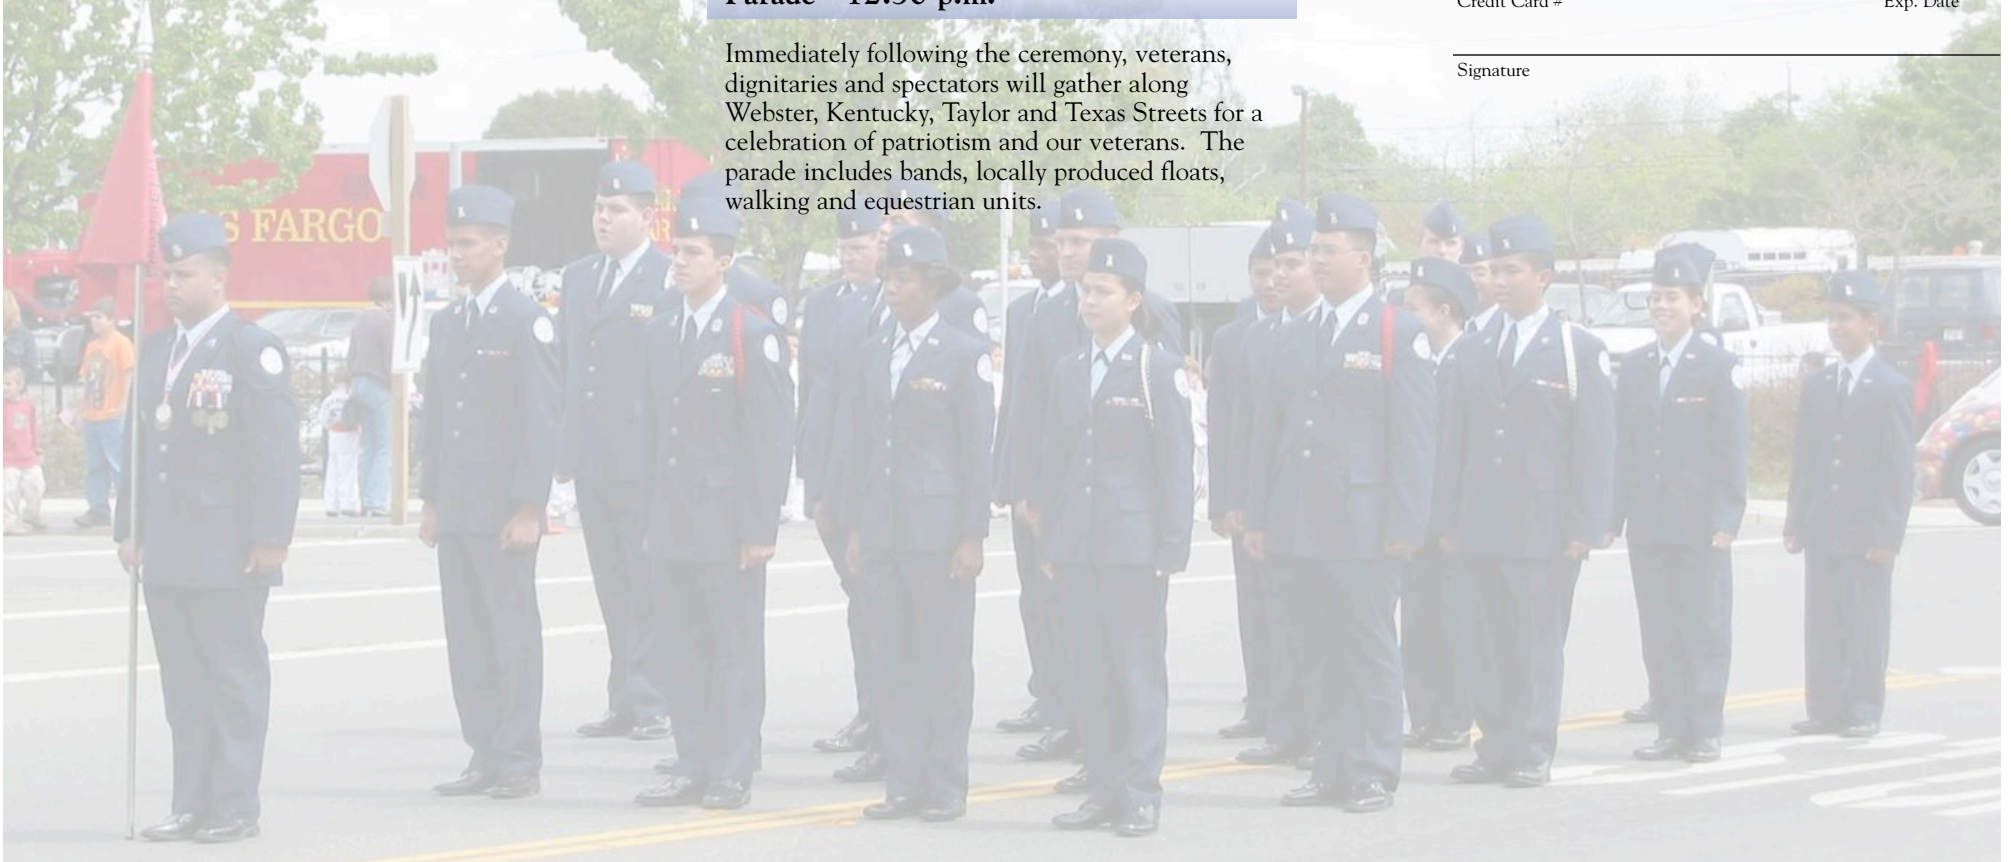

The Armistice ending World War I was signed on November 11, 1918, at 11a.m., creating a tradition followed to this day - the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month is a symbol for all veterans, and helps us remember all those who paid the ultimate price in every conflict since that massive "war to end all wars."

The Fairfield ceremony will honor those memories with remarks from local dignitaries and military representatives.

Parade - 12:30 p.m.

Immediately following the ceremony, veterans, dignitaries and spectators will gather along Webster, Kentucky, Taylor and Texas Streets for a celebration of patriotism and our veterans. The parade includes bands, locally produced floats, walking and equestrian units.
